

NEWS LETTER NO 31

Update 16/5/2014 Venice

We came to Venice for Lynda and Buzz's wedding. Now 3 years latter we are here to meet up with them for their 3rd anniversary. Last time we stayed at Fusina, across the bay on the mainland, with a regular ferry just outside the camp-site. The only drawback was the last ferry was 7.30 so we were unable to spend any evenings with them. This year we chose a site called Venezia which is on the mainland between the causeway and airport, with the airport bus passing the site entrance, which went to Venice bus station at Piazzale Roma. From there it was either a walk or a water bus to the centre.

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

On Wednesday Lynda and Buzz bought us day rover tickets, we had a trip out to Burano, where they make the lace and Torcello which is a small island with a large monastery, then back to our favourite bar on the south of Venice island, where you can watch the cruise ships leave.

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

Dislike of the day

Public transport in any country as it always takes me out of my comfort zone.

Like of the day

Venice public transport, it is great fun.

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

Barbecue.

Mark got us a b/q for xmas and we were lucky with the weather to be able to use it with the guys. (Buzz being an expert)

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

Cigars.

As most of you know I like a cigar, a Cuban cigar rolled on a maidens thigh is wonderful. But in Italy I have taken to these Toscano. They look like they have been rolled on a rusty piece of corrugated iron. But they taste great and last a hour (yummy).

Thanks

We would like to thank Lynda and Buzz for their invitation, generosity, but best of all there company over the last 3 days it has been great and a lovely interval in our trip.
