

NEWS LETTER NO 39

Update 8/9/2014 Nekargemund (Germany)

"On The Road Again" We are now across the channel coming the long way round via Derbyshire. We spent our first night at our friends Liz and Brian's at Scampton. Then on to Chatsworth caravan club site, which is the old nurseries. You get a key for this gate which takes you from the site to Chatsworth grounds.

This weekend was Chatsworth country fair a bit like, the Lincolnshire or great Yorkshire show, but with less tractors, cows, sheep and pigs, but with more horses shooting fishing dogs, and of course Hunter wellies.

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

From there we had a night at Maidstone, then the ferry, with nights at St Omur and a site in Germany just the other side of a bridge from the Luxembourg town of Remich.

Like of the day.

Municipal aire at Arques (St Omur) £2.80 a night.

IT'S 5.OCLOCK SOMEWHERE

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

Dislike of the day

The duck hunters who use these plastic decoys and shoot all night on the lake next to the aire.

Our first long stop is Nekargemund on the river Neckar just outside Heidelberg. Which is a very old, historic and pretty city, with a very good shopping street (which we made very good use of).

IT'S 5.OCLOCK SOMEWHERE

ADVENTURE BEFORE DEMENTIA

Food. (seems a good topic)

Bread in Europe is a tricky thing, you can get wonderful bread but on the other hand you can get some terrible stuff. In some areas of France the first morning baguette bake, is rock hard (because they dunk it in their chocolate) and bread in Germany is expensive. So I have started to bake some of our bread in the camper, in our new Remoska. (From Lakeland).

Like of the day.

Singing along to Fog on the Tyne by Lindisfarne, on German radio. With lots of strange looks from our European neighbours.

IT'S 5.O'CLOCK SOMEWHERE