Update 29/9/2014 Malcesine (lake Garda)

It may seem strange to people reading this, but last week to us was a holiday. We had booked a site (our first out of the U.K.) As we wanted to be close to Malcesine.

Our good friends Catie and Peter were once again holidaying in Italy so we planed to meet up with them and spend a few days playing at holiday makers, and it was great.

Like of the day.

A still warm evening with onion gravy on the gas stove, toad in the hole in the Remoska. A glass of vino rossi by my side, life does not get any better. It sure makes up for 42 years of early starts late nights and call outs even on Xmas day.

Update 2/10/2014 Maderno (lake Garda)

Lake Garda is one of our favourite places in Europe and one of the best ways to get around is by ferry. Garda has 24 towns where the ferry calls. It's about 3.5 hrs from top to bottom on the ferry. There is a wide range of different ferry's from paddle to hydro foil.
